ing at $1.50 a pair. With the sdjust-

White canvas low shoes, with patent for the magnifying influence of white is said to be one-fourth the original in loose effects, as dresses, and one-fourth in leathers for feet and hand wear.

Billowy alseves, of silk embroidery, gauss and flowered net are being used in fine mus-lin dresses. The effect is very Frenchy.

Mrs. Gladatone always attends meetings of Parliament when either her husband of her son Herbert is to speak,

"In this you will find a match" is the in-

Queen Victoria at the age of seventy-one means good-looking some thirty years ago.

while she was still in the prime of life. She suffered a great deal from attacks of erysipe-which she was wont to appear in a court toilet of the eighteenth century, the high-with such a dress lending a very becoming

Mrs. Edward Bellamy has two pretty little and post album leaves to the author of "Looking Backward," addition to her stature.

tician in the country.

ATHLETES IN REPOST

A. C. Ewifs, of the Alcycne Bost Club, is Billy Cody, the "irrepressible" of the Non-be can handle any kind of a "racket" with great skill, which soft improchant the beneficiary

A Very Snuq One.

Muss Sorge-Ois, Culbert: I'm sure Mr.

Distrow is having a fit!.

aboli: "there's a sold wave coming."

THESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 5.

Muscaiptions to the evening world

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY, Actives 31st and 32d ats., New York.

BROOKLYN - 350 FULTOW ST. HARLEM - Rev. Department, 150 East 125TM ST.;
Advantagements at 237 East 115TM ST.
FILLADELPHIA, PA. - Ladden Building,
112 South STR ST. WASHINGTON - 610
14TM ST.
LONDON OFFICE-32 Cockspur St., Trapal-

A FLAGRANT NUISANCE. The New York Steam Heating Company

is a programt source of annoyance to the rately trimmed, but a great portion for gen town. Its little explosive ways have been eral wear are garnished with ribbons. A rome Relies strated to a charm, and although pretty gray mohair figured with minute silthey imperil the life of every business man in the lower part of the town, at skirt, graduated widths being used. The corsage was correspondingly trimmed. least, we have become used to them and go bravely on, feeling like Russia's Czar. But now the playful steam which the Company injects into our streets has in-scription seen on a silver match-safe repre-dulged in a new caprice. It leaks into senting a muccular closed fist and forearmfully diffusive under such warm treatoner Gilnoy came in for a large dose of this aromatic distillation and fairly stamped on the floor with in-dignation over this gross affront to his olfactory nerves. He sent Engineer to the use of a camphorated dentifrice to Nicoscas R. O'Connos out on the war-the sower main, and the sewage gets pain-path with sealed orders to tomahawk liberally. It is tiresome to be blown up and asphyxisted with bad smells for the sake of one monopoly. Of course, this sort of thing is a wearisome antique, but the hope will spring up forever in the New York breast that it may be abated.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION.

The National Bar Association is to conrene to-morrow in Indianapolis for its dance of things in the way of reform which the Association would do well to sider. Long, interminable legal contests might be subject to certain curtailments. It is not fairness to let things be select it is not frimmen to the informace to the things because where the subject of the subject

Jersey City's temperance people must ghted to know that the city has on regaling steelf on a brew made up of sewage, coal oil, ter and Passaic River thown as one of the most active promoters of water. It doesn't sound enticing, and if squates about this city. He finds time to any Jersey City man, or woman as for bandle the oar, although be is one of the buriest that, takes to strong drink he, or she, has of business men. He is also an officer of the got a big extenuating circumstance. No writer Inspector Lakes shrank from Boat Citch, is thought a good deal of by the other making a report on the water.

W. C. Doscher, vice-president to the deal of by the other manbers because of his devotion to the best interests of the Citch. He is a fine handler of the interests of the Citch with the Citch with the contract of the Citch with the Ci Five thousand doctors in Berlin! It is sweep and formerly roved on the Club's win to be boped that nobody feels ill during ning crews. sesion of the profession. What hope could he have smong five thousand?

The probability is that JAMES GILLESPIE Brarus will not resign. No. not resign.

SPOTLETS. A man Grove four neils into his shull. This is Extremes meat naturally in a butcher This weather is an excuse for firsical on

A men cannot have an interest in things when he is dead because the principal is gone. The American maid is more convinced that the perithesen that it is not ers/ to get a fair

You may be great, you may be good.

In that the mobile more of less,
But all that will be types about that by our tangethe about.

It all be your tangethe about.

"They are going to double our minry," sold a hend director, "Lood. What are sungetting! bunchedy says the Vanderbilis couldn't buy too time of sallium with all they money. Why not to throw a gloom over the family in this

The new electric execution law terms an in ft was a meso wit who called the poor incar-or the spiller a sale to line.

1 5 can the the beam, "one the miton. "Con-

Her Brother - Yes; it's that one-piece Jer-es wove bathing-suit of his. he'll be out On the Seasbore. "Look out!" grisd the public to the slam

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. Pure linen bemsitched pillow shams are Sick Infants Helped by Generous view, Fla. "Evening World" Readers. leather tips and trimmings, are novel and stylish, but not popular. The feet must not succeed size 2 or width C to wear them.

The Little Tota Need Every Dollar Than Can Be Raised.

Their Sufferings This Hot Weather Is Something Terrible.

	ber son Herbert is to speak,	THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.
	In outing and yachting cloths the new cotton goods can scarcely be told from flannels. It certainly requires a close examination to detect the difference. There are more than a hundred styles. They are plain, mixed, graduated and cluster stripes. Quite an ornament to the smoking table is an ash-tray formed by the upturned palm of a human hand in bright silver. Bhirts of Summer toilets are shaped with great simplicity; many of them are elabo-	Carlo de la companya del companya de la companya del companya de la companya de l
l	rately trimmed, but a great portion for gen-	Fair in South Brooklyn

An entertainment was held at the resiver dots was recently finished, which showed dence of Miss Maud Foster in Fifty-third seven rows of black velvet ribbon on the street, South Brooklyn, under the management of Sadie Freel, Katle Mitchel, Minnie Stanley, Florence Foster and Mand Foster, for the Sick Babies' Fund. As it was mostly with small boys and girls, the amount is small -92.05. Hoping it will help a little, yours with good wishes,

Mrs. Frank's Collection.

To the Editor Inclosed please find check for $11.05, John F. Macdonald, which was donated by the following persons, solicited by Mrs. Bernard Frank at the suffered a great deal from attacks of erysipelas, which reddened and coarsened her skin.

She lost her teeth very early in life, owing to the use of a camphorated dentifrice to which she took a great fancy and which proved most pernicious. But from her accession at the age of eighteen till she was twenty-five or twenty-six, the Queen was a very pretty young woman, fresh and fair, with soft blue eyes, a small, rosy mouth, and the loveliest arms and shoulders imaginable. Her lack of height was always a great drawback, and was the cause of her delighting in giving grand fancy costumaballs, at which she was wont to appear in a court Pavilion Hotel, Far Rockaway, for the beneheeled shoes which must perforce be worn A plazza fair held at 850 East One Hundred and Sixty-first street for the benefit of the Sick Baby Fund realized the amount of children, and when not occupied with them writes autographs for friends who pester 55.50.

It was the energies of Miss Emmic Rattey and Miss Emmic Owens that brought the above amount, as they made the different articles that were sold and raffled. These girls are under nine years of age.

PROGRAMM'I.
Song

to toil through the restful period of our total amount subscribed.

The Summer theatre of Richfield Springs on Faturday evening last contained a fashionable and select audience. From the time of Mr. Wood's arrival on Friday morning, with the aid of Mr. | 36 West Thirty-fifth street. In a recent fire ravel llowing Club, can enjoy it uself in other Eugene M. Earle, of the Earlington everything was lost. They need ciothing. those who know his liking for the water. He is House, and Mr. I thouse the liking for the water water. He is House, and Mr. Proctor, of the Spring bedding, a stove and dishes badly. a if is tone to spin rams in the club-house when the members are assemble in anything but secure the spleudid success recorded.

C. F. Watson is a crack handler of the tennis accommodations of the artists, the use of sek will be furnished. racquet. His friends about the Cranges say that the theatre or the orchestra.

charming hotel is crowded with the most | shall receive particulars in confidence. charming hotel is crowded with the most fashionable visitors at the Springs, placed one of his elegant suits of rooms at Miss St. John's disposal, and began by securating about 150 sents from the plan for the use of his guests, for which, with donations, he surprised Mr. Wood with a check for over $300 as the result of his of the same place; Mrs. William Ehret, own personal labors in disposing of the Freehold, N. J. tickets and obtaining donation-, to any Mr. Ratect Green .- 36 West Thirty-fifth nothing of other personal cour.es'es and street.

Among his guests who contributed to this liberal result may be mentioned hand casps for rour Fair View collection.

Messrs, M. P. Breslin, A. H. Abendroth,

Miss Farts Recongues. The expressions C. H. Schultz, J. R. Franklin, A. J. in your note are most grateful. A "thank Clark, Engene E. Dewey, C. H. Hackett, you" from Paby Lane for the bill and billet. E. Littlefield, Wm. Noe, I. E. Van L. I. L.—Address them Doren, Ja sph Thompson, I. H. Warner, 30 West Thirty-fifth street. S. Herman, Wm. P. Earle, Marmuduke Any poor person whose evenight is defec-Richardson, F. Blumenthal, Mrs. D. T. tive or useds gineses and caunot afford to Pulaifer, Mr. Gerard B. Bermton, Thos. bar tham, will be supplied upon application S. Scovill, Josspin Egan, E. L. M. Sea. to Dr. M. L. Foster, Chief of Tax Eventso

Mrs. D. J. Tysen and Mrs. George Beckett, of Staten Island; Mr. Descher, of Brooklyn; Mr. M. L. Bradley, of Meriden. Conn.; Mr. Charles Baird, Philadelphia; Thomas Parks, of Belle-

Nor must Mr. Frank L. Taylor, the chief clerk of the Earlington, be for

Among the cottagers who have taken She Knows Every Alarm, and Is an active interest in contributing to the success of the Entertainment Fund must be mentioned Mme. de Barios, Ibbotson Cottage; I. P. Westcott, Mrs. F. B. Porter and others.

At the Tutler Cottage Mr. N. D. Jewell used all his influence among his guests, and no less recognition is due to A. R. Getman, of the Kendalwood; Mrs. Tunnicliff, of Tuenicliff Cottage, and J. T. Davenport, of the Davenport House; Mr. Carey, of Carey Cottage; Mrs. Drier and family, of Stansfield Villa; D. M. Fiske and party, A. T. Compton, J. Agostini at the Spring House.

Among the letters received by Mr.

Wood the following extract is from that of the Rev. Robert Granger, of St. John's Church, Richfield Springs:

The efforts of The Eventso Would to processes and sympathy for sick babies, like all other efforts of a sizular nature projected by The Would are worthy of every superate individuals's attention and support, because they embrace the fundamentals of Christiauity or common humanity, the sole inspiration or charm of which cousists in "going about doing good."

I shall do what I can for your entertainment as far as my personal influence may go, and kindly accent the inclosed mite towards the increase of the fund.

Mr. Edward J. Spencer, Manager at the Spring House and Summor Theatre, was

"The officer in charge of the partol-wagon away,"

The officer in charge of the partol-wagon at the East Chicago avenue station was talking to a friend the other even gas, says the Chlosgo Aves, when Fannie, the buildog in question, made her usual rounds of the stables. The sight of his points state the old patrolman to talking, and the story he told about that dog was worth repeating, principally because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," but because it is not merely a "dog story," and he never gets "sick" or goes to the "funezal of a day has she lost, and she never gets "sick" or goes to the "funezal of a day has she lost, and she never gets "sick" or goes to the "funezal of the detail

Spring House and Summor Theatre, was unremitting in his efforts to please both the artists and audience, ably assisted by John F. Macdonald,

The orchestra, under the direction of target of poor Fannie, who then was but an imposent run.

The orchestra, under the direction of D. H. Stubblebine, was placed at the disposal of the Fund Committee by Messra. Earle and Proctor, and performed various excellent selections.

The programme comprised Sydney Grundy's comedicate of "Man Proposes." in which Marguerite St. John, as Bell Huntington, captured her auditors here as elsewhere by her musical voice, charming toilets and her refined and natural comedy.

In her riding habit, by Wolmerhausen, ahe looks the picture of the high-bred English beauty that novelists describe, and both eye and ear are delighted.

Mr. Walter Granville, an English actor

Mr. Walter Granville, an English actor who played Capt. Huntington for the first time, is of the school that Maurice Barrymore and E. H. Sothern have made so popular in this country.

His merit was at once recognized by the audience, and he gave a most manly and delightful impersonation of the character.

Miss Flow Clabs.

The east is blushing.
The lands a e flushing.
The water's glowing
A stiver dream.
A faint light billow
lift Les my rillow;
The recovers crowing with Joy surreme.

The morning in shimmering gold is moulded, The tobin chants in the tree-top tall; And at less the monguine scriby folded His murmurous wing on the cottage wall.

Where shadows darkle, The dew-drops sparkle On littles, roses, And other things, And for the lake'es, Ducklet and drakelet

The flower that seems of the softest silk made Cradles the tee on the mountain inpw; And out in the simaline the row milkinait Adroitly manipulates the cow.

The fresky haifer Innates the red hyr. Scentist with claver. Shown and dean Though beat on selang. With once supplieding I of the over And call as.ec.).

Ob. I drop in a cat-map, aweet and soothing.

And wander through meadows green and b blait.

And forcet that the bicoming infant, forthing.

Has kept me prancing the deer all night.

And Yet.

We know that wronce forever being Their panes of deep regist. To ranks in the head and sing Our conservations and sing Our conservations and sing And all and our different Light we have the practions way that it add to hardings.

We know that it a istuta day-

That it now be exceeded.

This the asymmetric the way is very short.

We do not see: the drath'era spring
that it is a fail.

And, whate the drath era spring
that it is a fail.

be shand outside the rate.

be shand outside the rate.

Misinterpreting a Badge.

(Iron the Josephare Weekly.)

Fanntle Roy-Manime. I saw a man the Philacelphia, 1876," What does is or dar who were a badge with the legend.

how joint their noses
And spread their wings.

to toil through the restful period of our heated term in behalf of an American charity is another reason for congratulating them on their self-devotion, generosity and appreciation of our country.

Nearly $1,700 of our fund has now been raised by these artists, and by the end of the week the total will reach one-half the total amount subscribed. versal sympathy.

NOTES BY NELL NELSON.

Mrs. K. de C .- Send them to the West Thirty-eighth street family, care Dr. Foster. Mrs. J. L. L. -Johanna was a patient of Dr. Mason a. By addressing him care of his

The two hotels made no charge for the West Thirty-fifth street the information you Names. - It would be kind to withhold the Handsome Eugene M. Earle, whose pupiber. Fend me your address and you

Fiften New York Children Smangering at

L. I. L .- Address them care Dr. Foster, mean!
Mrs. Boy, of New York - It signifies, my dear, that Pintadelpina is about fourteen years brained the fines.

A CHANCE FOR THE JOKERS.

THE EVENING WORLD will give a gold eagle to the person who has sent in the best joke for the accompanying illustration. No further con-An Intelligent Canine That the tributions will be received in this contest.

Bluecoats Swear By. First to Respond. "Do you mean to tell me that that is a nember of the police force?" 'Certainly, as much so as I am." "What-a dog," "Why not? She is as faithful as a "Ob, but the idea of a dog being member of the police force." "Well, I suppose it's putting it strong to say just that. But among the men that bull-dog is considered one of them, and I know of them as 'ud as soon lose their

> A Question of Headgean He and She (simultaneously)—Where did you get that ---

W. A. S.

But She Did, Though. Chawley-I hope you don't find my company tiresome? Sally-Why, I didn't think I showed it.

A. J. H.

N. B.

He Could Not Be a New York Lawyer. Miss C. Foam-How odd, Mr. Code, to see you, a lawyer, in this strange position Mr. Code-Strange: how so?
Miss C. Foam-Why, with your hands in your own pockets.

B. H. Javasex.

Evidence That Always "Goes," Maud-Harry, there is one thing about Smiley-he is honest.

Maud.—When he left me last night he said he would be with me in spirit to-day, he has kept his word.

Harry.—How do you know?

Maud.—I sn.elled his breath.

C. A. O'C.

Taking No Unequal Chances. Gus-Come, Miss May; let us take a ramble down by the brook. Miss May-No; I don't care to create gossip. You know brooks are addicted to bbling. H. B. K.

Gussie Knows. De Whetstone-I say, Miss Gussie, why am I like a gold eagle? De Whetstone—I say, Miss Gussie, way am I have a good being broke on Saturday Miss Gussie—Perhaps it is lecause you are in danger of being broke on Saturday E. L. Willer.

She Knew Which Was Which. He-My dear wife. I hear that we are known in this dreadful place as Beauty and the Beast. She—Now, darling, I positively can't see why you should be called such a horrid

So Will the Editor. He-Won't you be glad when Saturday comes?

Did Not Guess the Conundrum Bightly. He-Aw-but, you see, I guess I would make a good husband. She-Guess again. B. M. G. One Every Twenty-four Hours Enough,

He -- So the contest will be over and we can sit down.

She-Are you going to participate in the tennis tournament to-day? He-No, I had (hie) racket enough last night. Gentle to His Brain.

She—I say, Clarence, why do you wear that one eye-glass? Clarence—So-ab-I cannot see more than I can understand, don't yer know?

Almost a Vocalized Dream of the Tailor. She-Don't you think your costume is pronounced, Chappie? He-That's just it, my dear; it speaks for itself.

Who Looks on This Side of the Picture? He—Your make-up is a stunner, With love my heart does fill.
And what is most important
Your father pays the bill.

No frechies, thanks to cold cream, Well worked the ant-fat,
But Lillie, dearest, tell me,
Where did you ges that hat? Variatio Delectat.

Could Not Trap Her That Way. Mr. Mortimer (sincerely)-I had a strange dream last night, Miss Robinson. dreamed, only think, that you and I were married and don't know how real it seemed. Did you ever dream the same thing, too?

Miss Robinson (sbarply)—No, Mr. Mortimer, I did not. I haven't had the night—W. N. E. M. dreamed, only think, that you and I were married and on our wedding tour. You

HE SAW THE OLD MAN.

Chicago Bootblack Secures a Loan of Phil Armour. bootblack walked into the office of

and all over him.

He went to the gate where a guard stands between his post and the greatest packer in the world. "Were's de old man?" saked the archin. The guard told the boy to get out. You tell de cle man dat I want to see I want to see him slone. I don't want to bodder you nor de ole man. But want to see do cle man, an' I want to see him right off."

Mr. Armour at his deak overheard the ragged request: "Let that boy come in here," he called to the young man at the The urchin approached Mr. Armour in

The urchin approached Mr. Armour in a business, like way. There were no preliminary compliments.

"Say," spoke the urchin. "I took a uap out dere in de siley, and wile I way as cep some o' dem kids from the Board o' Trade come along and swiped (atole) my kit an' I'm short. I want ter borrar a dollar to kuy me a kit, an' I'll pay you tack on de sa ment plan. See?"

Mr. Armour handed the boy two silver do lars and toid him to co. but the bey handed back one of the dollars and said;

"I doan' want but one. I'm gois' to pay it lack, and dete's no use o' a man goin' in deeper's his head. I alius keep my head above de water."

The truth of the above story is vouched for by one who saw the scene and overheard the conversation.

What Everybody Says S. Scovill, Joseph Egan. E. L. M. Seatman, F. L. Marshall, John Morris White.

J. Lawrence Chadwick, S. Burhaus, jr., all of New York; Mr. David Bedwell.

Adolph Mayer and alias O. Mayer, of New Orleans; Mrs. C. L. Mills, of Cincinnati:

Mrs. J. A. Minott, of East Orange, N. J.; taccom.

Bur Cham, will be supplied upon application from the fourteen process in the fourteen process which the function of the great process which is the Way of the Stars.

It is the Way of the Star

Getting Pointers. [From the Chicago Pribuse.] First Burglar - Bill, wot ye lookin' over that paper fur? Second Burglar - I'm findin' out wot fam'lies has shut up their houses an' gone

Mr. Armour, said the Chicago Tribune.
He had none of his outfit with him, but it's a mighty lucky thing for us, sake, the bootblack was stamped in his face that some folks likes to see their names in Where They Are Needed. [Prom the Nest York Weekly,] Lounger-Do cook-books form an imporant item in your sales? Bookseller-Yes; we sell them by the thousand.

"The women appreciate them, sh"
"Oh, the women don't buy them; their husbands de."

PIK-RON THE STAIN GLO & HER PRESIDENCE VARNIS

A STAIN THUMANS
A STAIN TOWN SAN SANSTER
A STAIN SASTO COACH
WOLFF & BALLDOLPS, FREE

IT WAS A MISERABLE SENSATION

MR. MANDETTLLK'S DESCRIPTION OF HIS AUFFERING FROM CATALBH.

He Had All the Annoying Symptoms of the Disease, and After a short Course of Treatment Under Drs. Blate and Cope and He Has Become a Well

Mr. Harry A. Mandeville resides at 177 Van Bielen atsune, Brookigs, and is employed as an accitant in the office of the well-known real estate agent, Hebrit Wheelin, at the currer of Aliastic and Van Bielen areness. Mr. Mandeville said to "" ear a pert had been suffering from a trouble which I could not understand. In fact, I did so know what was the matter with ms. I reased a great deal of phingm or unreus, I always had a coid, I had headcade very often. My nose was staffed up, first on one sida, then on the other Three was incling of lightness acress the bridge of my acts. The moone would drop into my threat, thus causing me to have a size of great deal, in order to keep my threat clear.

MR. HARRY A. MANDEVILLE, 177 Van Sielen are, such most of the thus.
My throat would get sore off and en. In the moreing la lways felt mure lifed than I did when I wonk to bed the night be ore. On the whole, it was a miserable senat on. One day I was reading the case or a lady wine had been cured of catarrh by Drs.
Blarked Copeland. Her symptoms were just his mine and bogen to wentler if I was not suffering Copeland. I found their terms very low, and they treated me for my trouble. My aspectite is seed now: I feel solendid! I have not felt so well since I first contracted the trouble. When was most remarkable was the fast that I gut so goud a result for so little money."

DOCTORS BLAIR & COPELAND,

NEW YORK OFFICES: 92 5TH AVE., NEAR 14TH ST. 47 WEST 42D ST., NEAR BROADWAY: BROOKLYN OFFICE: 149 PIERREPONT ST.,

where they trust with success all curable assess.

Specialises Catarrh and all diseases of the Hya.

Far. Thost and Lungs. Chronic Diseases. Address all mail to 92 th are. New York City.

It you have set away with for Symptom Sheet.

Other Hours—Stell 1, 30 A. M. and 1 to 4 P. M. 7 to 3
P. M. bundays, 9 to 11, 30 A. M. and 1 to 4 P. M.

flould you see the vast army of U happy people whose prosperity is due to WORLD "Wants" you would not wonder at the stupendons lead THE WORLD has over all other papers, or the constant gain from month to month in its advertising patronage. At least 10,000 men and women in New York and vicinity owe their start on the road to success to a little advertisement in THE WORLD. In order that absolutely ALL may have a chance, THE WORLD has made Mondays and Saturdays Half-Rate Situation Days, and charges but 5 cents per line for "Situation Wanted" "Wants," and but 10 cents per line for 'Help Wanted " " Wants."

STUGGINS'S " CORPSE CURE."

He Knew How to Take " Cantan-ker" Out of a Female. " Curb and Corridor," of the St. Paul ioneer. Press, has an aunt who lives in one of the four-points of the compassdivisions of the pretty city of Brookfield. Mass., and the old lady, who has a keen sense of humor, loves to dilate upon the queer people whom she has for neighbors and some of their old sayings and doings. Here are a couple of her ance-

"I had a female acquaintance who lived at the foot of a hill in North Brookfield, on whose slope was a small graveyard. At the bottom of the slope was the well which sup, lited her with water.

"One day a friend from Boston, a doetor, visited her, and when he took a walk after dinner was horrified at discovering the dirst p asthitties of the drama is from the iocation of the tombs into the well.

"He rushed into the house to remonstrate, but after he had told his horrible tale all the woman said way.

"Oh, I reckou twon't hurt me any.
Them's mo,'ly my relations that's buried up you let." lived at the foot of a hill in North Brook-up youder.' We used to call him Serrowful Brugg ns. i ecause he took on so when his fired wife d ed. the health a vault on his own place—it was nigh the skirts of North brookfield he lived—and had her body put in it so that the coffin could easily be seen.

"But Stuggins got tired of loneliness after a counte of years of widowering, and married a woman from a neignboring

The second wife had a temper of her "The second wife had a temper of her own, and it wasn't long before she gave Stugrina a taste of it. So what did that man do but go to an undertaker and get a glass top just in his first wife a coffin." These where number two got cantankerous he'd lead her to the vault and pash her down over the opaning, a wing:

"There, you gross-grained female, take a look at the buly woman I swar love!" It didn't take many doses of that sort of madwan to take pretty much all the cantanker out of number two, and we need to call it the 'corpse cure,' of madicine to take jurity much all cantanker out of number two, and used to call it the 'corpse cure,' "

THE POSTILL USE OF MODELL'S VERTEING CORDIAL STREET, 1500 MARCH 100 MARCH 10